Excitement Mounts as the 2020 Harris Clash Date is Announced

AMES, IOWA, Sept. 4- After a near record-breaking attendance to the 2019 Harris Clash, the 2020 Harris Clash date has been announced. The event will be returning to Deer Creek Speedway in Spring Valley, MN for a third time on August 4th, 2020. This will be the 29th running of the event.

Bob Harris, promoter of the Harris Clash, is looking forward to what the new year will bring. “We are thrilled to be returning to the Deer Creek Speedway once again for the Harris Clash! The staff there are second to none and work with IMCA and our team to put on a phenomenal show. The implementation of the Race of Champions this year brought a new tradition to the Clash and we are excited to see how that race takes shape over time.”

The Race of Champions, a new part of the Harris Clash that featured a dash of past event champions, will be returning to the lineup in 2020. The 2019 event featured $1200-to-win IMCA Northern Sport Mods and $3000-to-win IMCA Modifieds, yielding a field of 140 cars from 14 states. A complete payout and other details for the 2020 Harris Clash are yet to be determined.

First held in 1992, the Harris Clash is a premier event for IMCA Northern Sport Mod and Modified drivers across the country, with a unique emphasis on racing manufacturers. More information can be found at www.harrisclash.com.
